Contents

Section 1: The Big Story of medicine and health through time -- what do you think happened when?

Section 2: Why was Ancient Medicine so significant when people didn't even know what made them sick?

Section 3: Why didn't medicine improve during the Middle Ages?

Section 4: Why was the medical Renaissance important when it didn't make anyone healthier?

Section 5: Medicine in 1800: On the brink of progress

Section 6: Fighting disease after 1800: Which medical hero deserves the statue of honour?

Section 7: Public health after 1800: When did it finally improve -- and why?

Section 8: Why has surgery improved so much since 1800?

Section 9: Did Florence Nightingale revolutionise hospitals single-handed?

Section 10: Conclusions

The main topics of the book closely follow the main sections of the specification and provide core content, knowledge and understanding in clear and manageable sections. Specific aids to learning are: clear division between each of the four religions available for study with the specification; a bold, numbered list of Things to Learn at the start of each new section, revisited and reinforced throughout; limited amount of text reading per section so less-confident readers are not overwhelmed by full text pages; regular, achievable tasks and activities to check learning on each sub-section; careful attention to sentence length and language level throughout; colourful and attractive page design with large and informative illustrations; extra help in exam preparation questions.
